Jones and wife, dated respectively 14th October, 1880, and 7th October, 1882, and duly recorded, and being required so to do by the beneficiaries, we will sell, on the premises, by auction, at 12 o'clock M., on TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1883,

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1883,

(if fair: if not, on the next fair day thereafter.) that REALLY VERY VALUABLE FARM above described, cailed "DREWRY'S BLUFF," fronting three miles on James river, one mile from Drewry's Binff station and post-office, on the Richmond and Petersburg railroad about dight miles from Richmond, and the residence of the late Jas. B. Jones, containing about 1,300 ACRES, of which about 230 are river low-grounds, about 300 acres of second low-grounds, and about 300 acres of fine, rich upland, all in the cultivation (about 150 acres well set in orchard-grass and clover), and about 500 acres in original forest—pine, oak, hickory, and wahnut. The land lies beautifully, and is well drained. Can be divided into four farms of nearly equal size—three fronting on the river and the other on the Richmond and Petersburg turnplize. The LARGE FRAMED DWELLING, containing ten rooms, is beautifully situated, surrounded by a large forest of oak, hickory, &c.; the very best water convenions, and proverbally beauty, barns, stables, granaries, hay-sheds, and houses for tenants and laborers amply sufficient. We believe there is no more valuable farm in the State of its size, and those wanting, either for their own use or for investment, would do well to examine, attend the sale, and buy. Good neighbors, among them some northern families. Convenient to churches, schools, mills, &c., Young bearing orchard of fine varieties of apples, apricot, pears, &c.; and grapes, &c.
